ALMENA A. PORTER

Nursing Head to Retire Serves 27 Years at Kingston Hospital

It was announced today that Miss Almena A. Porter will retire as director of nursing at Kingston Hospital Oct. 1. Appointed to the position Sept. 1, 1929, Miss Porter has served the hospital more than 27 years under three administrators.

During that time Miss Porter has witnessed many changes in the nature of hospital operation as medical science, together with nursing service and nursing education progressed. The Nurses' Home had been completed only a few months when she took up residence there, she recalls, and she saw construction of the Kingston Laboratory and the Ulster County Tumor Clinic, as well as construction of the hospital's new wing. The complexity of nursing service increased with the gain in medical knowledge, and to the basic bedside nursing had to be added many technical skills. She has seen the average work-week of the graduate nurse decline from 54 to 40 hours per week, as nursing followed the pattern established by industry, although her own activities were not so limited.

Miss Porter noted, also, the increase in hospital activity during her tenure, with the number of patients admitted to the hospital annually more than doubling from 2,900 in 1929 to a current rate of 5,900. Six thousand more patients' care, and an increase from 200 to over 700 babies born per year are other indications of the increased responsibility. Almost as many patients now receive X-ray examinations in one month as did during the year 1929, she commented.

"The community owes Miss Porter a debt of gratitude for her loyalty and devotion to duty," said Allan L. Hanstein, president of the board of trustees, "and her many friends will long remember the personal service she gave in their behalf."

On Sept. 27 Miss Porter will participate in the graduation exercises of the School of Nursing, to be held in Kingston High School Auditorium. This will mark the 27th class graduated under her tutelage, and she takes pride in the fact that close to 400 students have entered the nursing profession under her guidance.

Miss Porter's future plans are indefinite, but after a vacation, she intends to reside in Kingston.

Young Child Has Fractured Skull In 25-Foot Fall

Mary Elaine Steltz, 23-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Steltz, of 113 Hasbrouck avenue, suffered a skull fracture and other undetermined injuries, when she fell from a third-story window at her home, and her condition this afternoon was reported as "poor" at the Benedictine Hospital.

Police were notified at 9:50 a. m., that the child had pushed a screen from a window at the rear of the house and had fallen about 25 feet to a sidewalk. Officers Edward Leonard and Gurnsey Burger, Sr., who were patrolling the area in a prowl car, went to the house, and they conveyed the child, with her father, to the emergency room of the hospital.

Registration Figures at New Chambers School Show 423 Students in Classes

A total of 423 students were registered yesterday at the new Chambers Union Free School, District No. 8, town of Ulster. It was announced today by Edward F. Dingeldey, chairman of the school board.

Registration was as follows: Kindergarten 87; First grade 68; second grade 64; third grade 67; fourth grade 57; fifth grade 42; sixth grade 38.

Additional registration are anticipated in the next 30 days. After the approval of a bond issue in March 1955, construction was begun in November 1955 with Larsen and Johansen as general contractors. The principal plan called for 12 classrooms, 2 kindergartens, 2 special classrooms, kitchen, cafeteria, library, offices and a gymnasium-auditorium for school and community use. In December 1955 an additional bond issue of $56,000 was approved to add 4 classrooms, making a total of 20 classrooms at a construction cost of $812,905. This includes landscaping, paved roads and walks and an outdoor recreation field.

Principal Reginald Russell announced that the cafeteria will be completed in about 10 days and the full lunch program will begin with hot lunches for the students being provided at a cost of 25 cents.

Transportation of students in the Chambers school district is one of the most complex in the state for a Union Free School requiring 9 buses and the school station wagon making 20 trips to transport about 560 students to parochial and public schools.

Construction is continuing at a rapid pace and will be substantially completed in a month. State aid is based on average daily attendance and the Chambers school is fortunate to be opened in time to qualify for the maximum amount of state aid to be received next year.

faiths, and Joseph Murphy, former fire chief of Kingston, will be the principal speaker.

Among the village organizations scheduled to participate are: Woodstock Fire Companies No. 1, 2 and 3; The Odd Fellows; Woodstock Riding Club; Wittenberg Sportsmen's Club; Woodstock Motor Club; Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts; and members of the various churches. Also in the line of march will be Woodstock's present oldest fire engine, the Sanford, the pride of all the youngsters of the village, driven by former fire company driver, (Continued on Page 19, Col. 8)

Parley Set To Discuss Structure

Talk on Stadium Angle to Be Held

Preliminary drawings for a new junior high school for 1,000 students in the Dietz Stadium area were viewed by members of the Kingston Board of Education Thursday night and meetings were proposed for the near future with architects and city representatives.

The drawings were submitted by Augustus R. Schrowang, Kingston architect.

Highly Tentative Plans

They are highly tentative in many respects but form a basis for discussion and planning. Not even the shape of the school has yet been determined.

It was announced that a Stamford, Conn., firm of architects was under consideration by the board as associate architect. Several months ago the board approved appointment of an associate firm which has specialized in school architectural problems.

A representative of the firm—Sherwood, Mills and Smith—will be invited to meet with Mr. Schrowang and the building committee of the board very shortly.

To Meet Council Committee

The building committee will also seek a meeting with Mayor Stang's special Common Council committee to discuss deeding of land in Forsyth Park to the board as site of the proposed school which would consist of seventh, eighth and ninth grade students.

Questions relating to Dietz Stadium must also be discussed with the city. The mayor reportedly feels that general city use of the stadium might be curtailed by construction of the school in that section. According to a communication from the State Education Department, however, it is not believed that city use of the stadium would be affected.

Would Take Some of Grounds

The stadium itself, both stands and field, would not be affected, according to plans under consideration.

The school would be built above the stadium level where the ground rises somewhat from the outfield area. It would extend somewhat into the park lands.

The building committee, of which Chester Baltz is chairman, has studied the needs of a 1,000-student junior high school, the number of rooms, their size, location, etc. The architect's drawings reflect these conclusions.

Will Mark Area

It was pointed out that Mr. Schrowang would place stakes in the ground to indicate roughly the location of the building when city representatives visit the site.

It was the feeling of the board that the building committee should meet with Mr. Schrowang and the proposed associate firm to talk over the situation and to "spell out definitely" what the relationship between the

Adult Driver Lessons To Start on Monday

New adult driver training classes will be formed Monday at 9:30 a. m. at the vocational building adjacent to Kingston High School.

All registrants are to meet in room V-108.

Classes are to meet thereafter Mondays from 3:30 p. m. to 5:30 and from 5:30 p. m. to 7:30.

Behind-the-wheel instructions will be given one day a week.

Notch Road Work Is Progressing; Started July 16

Work on the much publicized Notch Road between the Ulster-Greene county line is "progressing nicely," a spokesman for the Rock Construction Company of Sunset Park reported today.

Work on the road, which extends through Lanesville and northeastward to Edgewood, was officially started on July 16.

Ready for Concrete

The spokesman said workmen are about ready to pour concrete for the abutments on one of three new bridges which will be provided. He said the "pile-driving" is completed and we're about ready for box culverts near the Hunter end of the road.

The road attracted a good deal of public attention some time ago when residents along the route refused to send their children to school because of the dangerous condition of the road. In an effort to compel the state to reconstruct the route a "strike" by parents was instituted and drew wide publicity. Visits were also made to Albany by delegations in an

Haver Heads Advance Gifts Division of Community Chest

Attorney N. LeVan Haver, former Ulster county district attorney, will head the Advance Gift Division in this fall's Kingston Area Community Chest "Red Feather" drive, it was announced today by Paul F. Steinkuller, general chairman.

A life-long resident of this city, Mr. Haver attended local schools and is a graduate of Albany Law School. He has been practicing law for 28 years, and is Republican city chairman.

In August, 1955, Mr. Haver was inducted as a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a national organization composed of outstanding trial lawyers of the United States. Fellowships are limited to one per cent of the lawyers practicing in each state.

In accepting the Community Chest appointment, Mr. Haver noted that the organization, growing slowly but steadily during its first two years, is now an established segment of community life and is "here to stay."

"It has been the experience in other cities that Community Chest reaches full stature during its third and fourth years," he said.

The Chest in one annual appeal combines the former individual drives of Boys Club, Girl

Death of Baby Probed Kidnap-Murder Seen in Ruotolo Case

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 7 (AP)—State's Atty. Abraham S. Ullman said that his plans "are in a state of flux" today as police pressed their investigation in the Ruotolo baby case.

Ullman, greeted by newsmen as he arrived in the county building, some seven miles from where kidnapped 6-weeks-old Cynthia Ruotolo's body was found, indicated that he intended to spend sometime in his office this morning.

Asked whether anything developed during the night, he said: "I have nothing to say now."

Later, Ullman said that "on the surface, as of now, it looks like a kidnap-murder."

Ullman was joined in his office by top Hamden and New Haven police officials, most of them carrying thick folders of evidence gathered the past few days.

Chief Harry Barrows of Hamden and Asst. Chief Raymond Eagan of New Haven said, after meeting with Ullman, that "we went over our notes again and again, checking further on various issues and what step to take next."

Barrows also reiterated that "anybody connected with the case is a suspect."

With an absence of interstate angles indicated, the FBI has officially stepped out of the probe although its facilities have been made available to local authorities.

Center of the vast probe moved quickly from Hamden police headquarters to the office of State's Atty. Abraham S. Ullman in the county courthouse here last night after the 6-week-old baby, Cynthia, was found stuffed in a plastic bag in Hamden's Lake Whitney.

The child's mother, Eleanor Ruotolo, told police the baby was snatched from her carriage in the foyer of a Sears Roebuck department store Saturday, a mile from the lake.

It was shortly after three boys fishing had found the body that Ullman's office became the investigation's focal point.

Mrs. Ruotolo spent several hours there with Ullman, Coroner James J. Corrigan and police investigators. She was led out at 8:30 p. m., got into a police car and was driven off.

While no one at Ullman's office would say what Mrs. Ruotolo was at the courthouse for, Deputy Police Chief Frank Cataneo of Hamden said she was

Referendum Necessary For City, Rural Areas Committee Checking Taxes, Finances, Other Angles for Next Meeting Report

Problems involved in the proposed Greater Kingston Area consolidation are under intensive study by the Kingston Board of Education and other school districts in the consolidation area, it was reported Thursday night at a meeting of the city board.

A committee of the local board consisting of David Kline, chairman, County Judge Louis G. Bruhn and Mrs. John D. Schoonmaker is gathering and sifting data in connection with the proposed consolidation and is expected to report its findings to the full board at the next meeting.

Making Full Study

Various highly puzzling aspects of question are under study—financial implications, tax rate, future school problems, etc.

Superintendent Earl Soper pointed out that the committee is exploring all aspects, advantages and disadvantages—for example, what it would mean if Kingston had to "go it alone."

Both Kingston and outlying school districts must approve consolidation in a referendum. If approved, children in the rural areas would attend designated elementary schools outside the city but would send their students to junior high and high school in the city of Kingston.

All Aspects Considered

Mr. Soper explained that if the rural people moved out Kingston would lose tuition and state aid amounting to approximately $600 a child but would save something, on the other hand, by reduced teaching staff and smaller costs of instructional supplies.

For purposes of analysis the Greater Area committee of the local board has divided the rural area into two regions—north and south.

It is the consensus of the committee that if Kingston said "no" to consolidation the rural districts would seek a single centralized system.

It was pointed out that if consolidation failed the only immediate building requirement faced by the city would be the new junior high school proposed for the Dietz Stadium area.

Five Teachers Lost

Mr. Soper reported that enrollment in Kingston High School could be expected to be a "couple of hundred more" than last year. He explained that city schools would have this year a little heavier pupil load but that "thirty-three pupils is pretty near the top" for any single classroom. He reported a net loss of five elementary teachers, which results in heavier pupil load.

In some instances, enrollment has been startling. For example, there are more than 100 children in School 5 kindergarten. All eighth grades are located at MJM and seventh grades in the George Washington School.

The board took cognizance of the following resignations: Mrs. Jean Ducland (new teacher); George C. Odell, general science; Maureen J. Cook, social studies; Miss Marie Coughlin, cook at MJM; Miss Ethel Beatty, George Washington School; Mrs. Georgianna Brown, KHS food service helper, and Robert A. Wold industrial arts.

The request of William A. Mack, attendance supervisor, for a six-month leave of absence was granted.

Appointments Approved

The following appointments were approved: Eugene Loughlin, now teaching Grade 6 at School 3, transfer to English department of the high school; Mrs. Patricia Taxter, elementary, $3,850; John Fallon, health and science, $5,450; Richard Stedman, social studies, $5,300; Mrs. Helen Littlefield, attendance teacher, $4,000, and John Ascarino, elementary schools, $3,850.

The following non-teaching probationary appointments were made: Senior stenographer—Mrs. (Continued on Page 20, Col. 5)

City-Town Water Program To Be Discussed Sept. 13

A proposed study toward possible future improvement of area water facilities is expected to be considered by the Board of Water Commissioners at its meeting Sept. 13.

Second Ward Alderman William S. Keyser proposed the study, including the possibility of cooperation with the town of Ulster, at a Common Council meeting last month, and the suggestion was in line with one made recently by State Commerce Commissioner Edward T. Dickinson.

The commissioner suggested at the recent mayors' conference in New York that "The consolidation of municipal water supply systems by cities and towns with common economic interests" can be an important factor in the location of industries.

Keyser's proposed study also pointed to future industrial water needs in the area.

"Industrial uses of water today," said Dickinson, "have multiplied to the point where there are very few items, which, at some point in their manufacture, have not been treated in some way with water."

As an example he noted that "more than 100,000 gallons of water are required to produce an airplane engine, about 75,000 gallons to make a ton of paper pulp, and nearly 300,000 gallons to produce a ton of rayon."

The nation's industrial water consumption, he said, averages approximately 8 billion gallons a day, with New York industries accounting for eight to 10 billion gallons.

The state's public water supply systems have grown enormously, he said. The state now has 876 serving 1,325 communities with a population of approximately 14,000,000.

"But, while some communities have created water supplies sufficient for the future, others are feeling the pinch."

Daley Takes Over Teamsters' Office, Records in Yonkers

The Daley faction today took over the office in Yonkers of Local 445, Teamsters Union, it was announced early this morning.

Action followed a decision of Supreme Court Justice Harry E. Schirick Tuesday directing all records, books, etc., be turned over to Theodore G. Daley of Poughkeepsie, secretary-treasurer, by two former union officials now serving five-year federal prison terms for extortion.

"The decision was handed down in a special term of Supreme Court at Albany."

Philip Masiello, 43, of Middletown, who was business agent of the local, and Francis L. Stickle, 54, of Yonkers, former secretary-treasurer, are now in Kingston, employed by Needes trucking concern, trustee; Frank A. Calandria, Newburgh, trustee; Edward Urso, Pelham, trustee; Charles Blaney, New Rochelle, John Monnell, Newburgh, and George Schaeffer, Middletown, business agents.

not release the records of the union prior to court action.

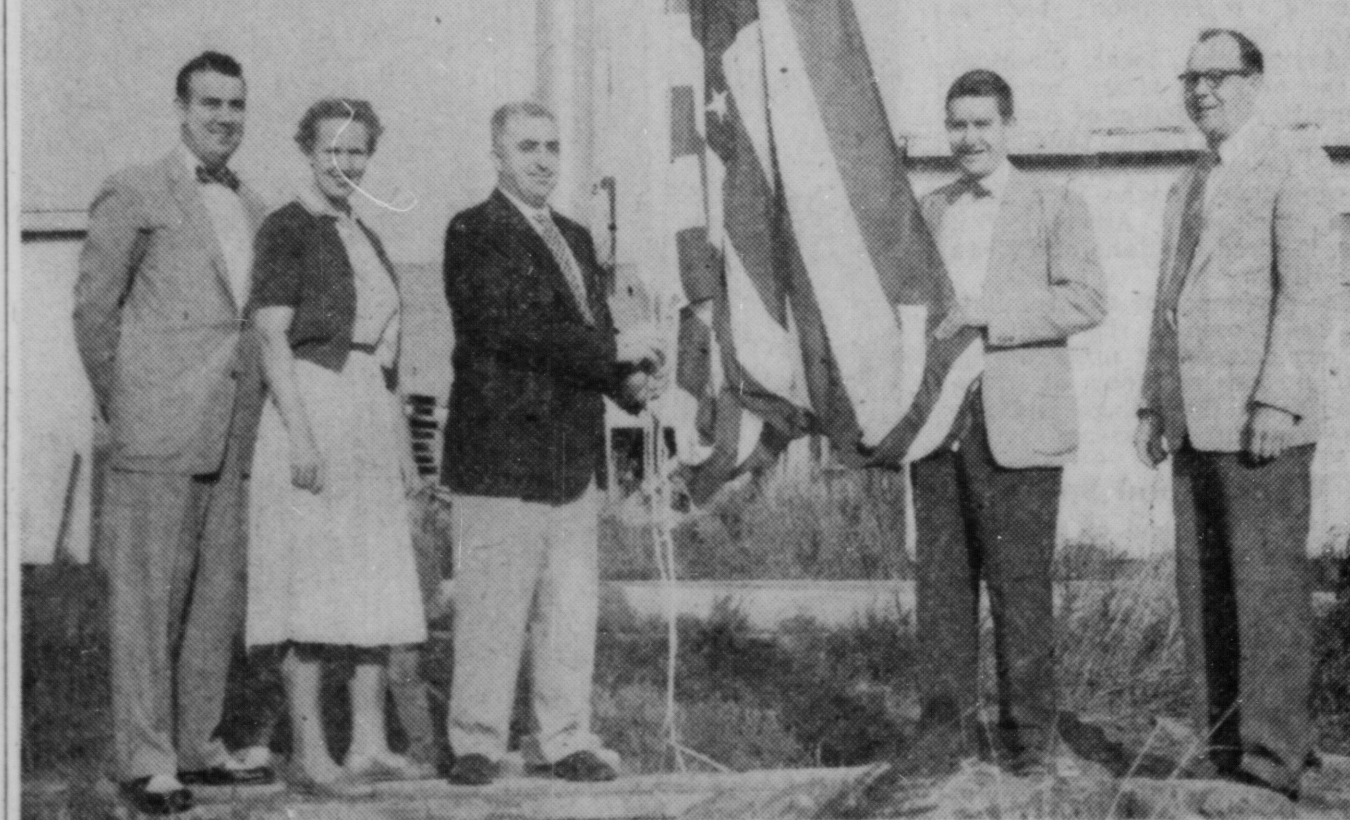

Judge Schirick's decision also granted additional injunctive relief to the Daley faction.

Kingston Attorneys Francis Martocci and Robert Ortale represented Daley.

The union's office, which he took over today is at 2 Post street, Yonkers, the Teamsters' headquarters for some 20 years. Truck drivers in seven counties are members. There are 2,500 of them on the rolls, Daley said.

Daley telephoned The Freeman shortly after 7 a. m. today to announce that he was taking over the Yonkers office.

Other officers of Local 445 are James Hopkins, Liberty, president; Owen Kiniry, Rhinebeck, vice president; Donald Johnson, Kingston, employed by Needes trucking concern, trustee; Frank A. Calandria, Newburgh, trustee; Edward Urso, Pelham, trustee; Charles Blaney, New Rochelle, John Monnell, Newburgh, and George Schaeffer, Middletown, business agents.

Newburgh Is Hit Hard by Storm

Newburgh, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)—Damage was estimated at $100,000 to $200,000 today following a downpour of cloudburst proportions late yesterday.

About three inches of rain fell in three to four hours, flooding basements and causing other difficulties.

Hardest hit was the Diamond Candle Co., a manufacturer of wax candles and other products. A cascade of water from a nearby viaduct flooded the plant's first floor and basement.

Water pouring into the basement caused a boiler to explode, knocking out a large section of wall. A company spokesman estimated the damage at $75,000 and said the company would have to close down about a week. It employs 100 persons.

Several hundred residents reported five to six feet of water in their basements. City officials began a survey to ascertain the extent of damages to streets and storm sewers.

Negroes Ask Ballot

Denver, Sept. 7 (AP)—Fifteen thousand delegates to the national Baptist convention cheered a plea by convention president J. H. Jackson of Chicago last night that American Negroes be given "our ballot now." Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, told the same gathering that "it is incredible, but true, that the President of the United States is assuming a neutral position" on school desegregation. Dr. Jackson, pastor of Chicago's Olivet Baptist Church, said the Negroes' "most urgent request is to give our brothers in the South the full right to vote. If you give us our ballot, we will not give the federal government in the near future about our rights as citizens."

Two tons of electronic sound amplifying equipment are needed to serve the Republican and Democratic national conventions so that both speeches and music can be heard by the huge throng of delegates.

Weldy Is Released

Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic, Sept. 7 (AP)—Police have released Richard Weldy, 35, a jungle trapper questioned in the shooting of Robert Harrison, 50, publisher of Confidential magazine. Weldy was turned loose last night. The police acted after Harrison told newsmen the shooting was an accident, he did not plan to file charges, and "Weldy is a nice person." Weldy had been jailed on a holding charge. Harrison backed up Weldy's story that he dropped his shotgun by accident and it discharged. The shot wounded Harrison slightly in the shoulder.

Plywood Wall Paneling

Hardwood plywood wall paneling is available in a special plank effect. Vertical lines are routed at the factory at either regular or random intervals for a formal or rustic motif. This gives the paneling the appearance of planking, yet retains the functional values of plywood—dimensional stability, strength, less weight and easy installation.

AIR-CONDITIONED "SEWER PIPE"—This air-conditioned "sewer pipe" is off on a 50,000-mile 16-months' tour of the U.S. Built by a division of Armco Steel Corporation, of Middletown, Ohio, it contains a complete exhibit of the company's municipal and highway products. The corrugated steel pipe, mounted on trailer wheels, resembles regular sewer pipe in every respect except one. It is made of finely finished stainless steel instead of plain carbon steel. The $50,000 "Steelmobile" is 35 feet long, eight feet wide and 12 feet high. Its year-round air-conditioning unit is large enough to serve a small house. In addition to its tour of U.S. cities, the rolling exhibit will go to Canada in 1937.

Show Cause Order Given Opponents In Carvel Case

Opponents of a recent zoning board decision favoring application of the Carvel Corp., White Plains, to operate an ice cream store on the Monroe T. Southard property, Albany and Foxhall avenue, have obtained a "show cause" order for review of the decision, it was announced today.

Attorney Joseph Avis, zoning board president, said the order, obtained yesterday and signed by Supreme Court Justice Harry E. Schirck, is returnable in Supreme Court, Albany, Sept. 14.

Listed as opposing the board's decision, which was announced about a month ago, are Frank E. Lyle, of 438 Albany avenue, Ethel Leware, of Foxhall avenue, and Charles Pugliese and Ralph Nelson, of Devo street.

The four are represented by Attorney Sherwood E. Davis.

S. James Matthews represents the Southard interests, and Philip R. Franklin, appears for the Carvel Corp. Corporation Counsel James J. Abernethy represents the city.

The opposition is asking for a stay of proceedings until the appeal is determined by the court. First application by the Carvel Corp., was rejected by a Common Council vote. This was reversed, after appeal, by the corporation, and it is the latter decision which is being contested.

Adult Education In Saugerties Offers 20 Topics

More than 20 subjects may be offered in the Adult Education program of Saugerties Central School system scheduled to start in October according to Dr. Grant D. Morse, superintendent of schools.

Registration for classes in the Main Street School in the village will begin at 7:30 p. m., Oct. 4. Registration for the Glasco area will be held in Glasco School Oct. 3 at 7:30 p. m.

The list of subjects to be offered has not been definitely established and any adult in the Saugerties Central District area interested in having a class formed in a subject may write Miss Frances Larned, assistant director of Adult Education or to Superintendent Morse, director of the program.

List of Subjects
It is anticipated that the following subjects will be offered: Band, community chorus, hobby shop and woodworking, metal work, interesting books, knitting, Americanization, ceramics, orchestra, photography, rug hooking, sewing, typewriting, driver training and first aid.

Other courses under consideration if 12 or more register are: Gardening, German, interior decoration and home beautification, hair care and good grooming, care of infants for young mothers and making of draperies, curtains and slip covers.

Some separate courses may be offered in Glasco said Dr. Morse. These may include sewing, knitting, typing, English and driver training. Additional courses will be offered there if there is sufficient demand to maintain the required attendance. An average attendance of at least eight must be maintained in order to continue a class.

Registration Fee
There is a small registration fee for all courses. The driver training registration fee is slightly higher.

Assisting the local directors of the program is an advisory committee consisting of Anthony Rizzio, Mrs. Ethel Donaldson, Mrs. Albert Cutler, William Woestendiek, Charles Rice, Mrs. Vera Mack, Mrs. Albert Perks, Mrs. Mildred Montano and Dean Van Etten.

The personnel of this committee was chosen to represent the various component areas of the central district, four of them being from the village and five from the outlying areas.

When Wood Splits
Splits in the end of pieces of wood can be repaired by prying the crack open so that wood glue can be worked into it and then using a clamp to hold it closed until the glue is dry.

Better Than Soap
Soap applied to wood screws makes them go into the wood easier but soap can have a corrosive action on certain types of screws and cause them to rust. It's better to use beeswax as a lubricant than soap.

Trainmen to Support Friends of Labor

Oneonta, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)—The president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen says his union will support politically "the men we think are for labor."

William T. Kennedy said in an interview yesterday the brotherhood hoped that Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York city would be the Democratic nominee for U. S. senator.

Kennedy said Wagner was "following in the footsteps of his father . . . one of the most liberal senators who ever served."

The union president visited this community on the 73rd anniversary of the founding here of the BRT. He reported membership was 218,000.

Kennedy said the brotherhood would decide at a meeting Sept. 25-26 in Chicago whether to endorse candidates for president and vice president.

Javits' Prospects Dim

Washington, Sept. 7 (AP)—Senate investigators today indicated prospects are dim for further hearings involving Jacob K. Javits in advance of his bid Monday for the New York Republican senatorial nomination.

Javits, New York state attorney general, had testified voluntarily before the Internal Security Subcommittee Wednesday in his efforts to clear his name of what he called "vicious rumors" linking him with Communists.

The New York State Republican Committee will pick the senatorial nominee on Monday, and Javits said he was seeking vindication before that date.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—International oils again lost ground today on discouraging reports about the Suez Canal crisis and the stock market was generally lower early this afternoon.

Losses among pivotal ranged from 1 to around 3 points.

After a burst of early selling on news of the deadlocked Cairo conference, the market settled down to quiet trading.

The second day of the Jewish New Year's holiday as well as normal weekend tendencies for short-term traders to close their positions dampened interest.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

HOW CAN WE SAVE UNLESS WE EARN?

Capital to expand industry cannot be manufactured by a beneficent government. It must be produced by competitive free enterprise, which is the Constitutional System. Then it goes to work and multiplies again and again. There is no other way to create more and more jobs and good jobs.

MR. HUTTON

If American industry is to continue to expand, it must have freedom from too high taxes and from Government competition, which is unequal justice—not "equality under law." Only by continued expansion of our "know-how" in time of peace, can our industrial capacity be assured, which is our chief line of defense in time of war.

The job ahead is to preserve the economic integrity of competitive capitalism and prevent its weakening by Government competition and taxation.

The unhampered operation of risk capital opens the door to human ambition—the incentive to produce more and more goods at less and less cost. This is the only process that can keep us free enough to be strong enough for whatever is ahead. Enlightened Government, operating as the guardian of the people's liberties, but not their master, can make America invincible against all enemies—"foreign and domestic."

What will it avail us to stop the Bolsheviks if State Socialism conquers us from within?

Lend your hand, neighbor! Send this to your Congressman and Senator.

Briefly Told

Boonville, N. Y., Sept. 7 (P)—Streams in the Oneida county community receded today after 2.42 inches of rain in a 24-hour period sent them pouring over their banks.

Some school buses were delayed as water sent rocks and gravel over roads. The rainfall was measured for the period ending at 7 p. m. last night.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 7 (P)—Gov. Harriman will speak at the Monroe County Fair tomorrow at 8 p. m.

His office said yesterday he would fly from Albany to Rochester early in the afternoon. His schedule calls for a news conference and an informal Democratic dinner before his visit to the fairgrounds.

Lake George, N. Y., Sept. 7 (P)—Police in this resort community didn't tag cars standing over- time at parking meters this summer. They put nickels in the meters.

And the sponsoring Chamber of Commerce found the plan paid off in more than good will. It returned a profit.

The "courtesy nicker plan" cost the chamber $69-$45 in nickels and $24 for return envelopes and polite reminders requesting the return of the nickels. Grateful motorist sent in $80.83.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 7 (P)—"I am a hog—I take 2 meters."

That frank sign was taped to the rear window of a car occupying two metered parking spaces.

When the owner returned he found something else on the car—a ticket.

Plattsburgh, N. Y., Sept. 7 (P)—Bids will be opened this fall on a 1,658-unit housing project designed to relieve a shortage of living quarters for families of strategic air command personnel at Plattsburgh Air Force Base.

The air force said yesterday that construction of the 28-million-dollar project would begin next summer and should be completed in a year. The 396 buildings will be built on the base as an addition to 72 units now available.

The air force said "many more" units would be requested when the base grew to full strength.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 7 (P)—State auditors said today that a $10,376 shortage in the books of the town of Ellicottville had been traced to the town supervisor's wife.

They said the missing money since had been replaced by the supervisor, Joseph W. Fitzpatrick, son of the Cattaraugus county Republican chairman, William F. Fitzpatrick.

However, the State Department of Audit and Control sent a copy of its report on the audit to District Attorney J. Richmond Page. And a department spokesman said this indicated "the department thinks the matter deserves consideration with a view toward prosecution."

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 7 (P)—General Electric Company has set up a national organization to handle its industrial computer business. The company said yesterday it expected the computer sales would exceed a billion dollars a year by 1965. GE said those sales now total 450 million dollars a year.

Bradford, Pa., Sept. 7 (P)—A railroad laborer from Salamanca,

N. Y., died in a hospital yesterday from third degree electric burns suffered Tuesday.

Authorities said Anthony J. Revetti, 30, was severely burned when he inadvertently touched the side of tie-laying machine after its boom snarled in an overhead power line.

The line, carrying a charge of 34,500 volts, paralleled the tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, Revetti's employer.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 7 (P)—Federal mediator William Rose today resumed efforts to end a strike of 10,000 employees against 39 glass manufacturing companies across the country.

The strike, called by the American Flint Glass Workers Union, started last Saturday against the National Assn. of Pressed and Blown Glassware and the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute. The association represents seven firms employing 7,000 union members; the institute represents 32 firms employing 3,000 union mold-makers.

About 30,000 other employees at the plants are idle because they refused to cross picket lines.

Panama, Sept. 7 (P)—The Typographers' union called a strike for this afternoon in Panama City in sympathy with a three-day walkout of Panama's union bus drivers.

The typographers' strike threatened to halt publication of all newspapers in the city. It came as negotiations in the bus strike were stalemated.

Bodies Washed Ashore

Naha, Okinawa, Sept. 7 (AP)—Two bodies were washed up on the beach today when 11 U. S. Marines drowned in an unexpected undercurrent yesterday.

Interruption of communications with remote "North Camp," where the drownings occurred, prevented any report on whether the bodies were identified. The U. S. 3rd Marine Division said, however, that helicopters and men of the 2nd Battalion, 9th Regiment were continuing patrols in the hope of finding more bodies. Brig. Gen. Victor H. Krulak, commander of the division, has ordered an investigation.

BABSON on BUSINESS

Babson Park, Mass., Sept. 7—Recently, monetary authorities have tightened their controls again, bringing about a further decline in bond prices. I forecast that these authorities—so long as business remains good—will maintain a firm rein on credit. The trend for bond prices has been down for 20 months. That is the primary reason why I have advised and still advise the average investor to buy only short-maturity bonds.

INVESTOR INTEREST in bonds has increased somewhat in recent weeks as uncertainties have crept into the outlook for common stock prices and as yields from the most popular common stocks have become quite low. These stocks could be particularly vulnerable in any important market correction. I predict that investor interest in bonds will grow.

As I view the monetary and business situation this fall, I foresee a continued weak bond market. The monetary authorities will have to contend with possible upward price pressure arising out of the steel wage settlement; but nothing radical will be done until after the elections in November. Certainly, nothing will be done before then to harm business.

DO NOT COUNT on long-term Government bonds showing any sustained strength. After the elections the money managers may have to fight higher prices by again slightly tightening credit terms and raising money rates. I assume that bankers—who are mostly Republicans—do not object to higher money rates.

I would caution the average investor against buying long-term Government bonds with any thought of profits. As with other bond groups, I urge investors to confine the major portion of their purchases to intermediate and short-term Government issues. Only for death-tax purposes should one build a backlog of those long-term Treasury issues which are always worth par for payment of estate taxes. This means one should not pay more than par for them. Remember, however, that the interest received from Government bonds is subject to federal income taxes.

THE DIFFERENCE in yields between high-grade corporate and Government bonds in a given maturity is now relatively small. However, I question whether even insurance companies should buy so heavily into the corporate field as into Governments. Unlike the individual investor who maintains a balanced fund of bonds and stocks, insurance companies, particularly life companies, must spread maturities and include some long-term bonds, including AAA utilities and rails. Colleges, hospitals, and funds not subject to taxation can well consider good corporate bonds. However, I think such buyers should put more of their bond funds into utilities and industrials than into rails.

THE AVERAGE investor to whom yield is important would be justified in putting a small part of his funds into medium-grade utility and industrial issues. On long-term issues of such bonds, he can now obtain a yield of about 3.75% on rails, 3.59% on industrials, and 3.62% on utilities. But at these yields, I prefer nontaxable bonds, such as municipals and high-grade revenue issues for those who are in the high tax brackets and who do not worry about marketability.

I would recommend that purchases of medium-grade corporation bonds be confined to first-mortgage issues. Medium-grade bonds are influenced in price movement by what happens in the stock market. In no case should the average investor place any of his funds intended as a nest egg for later purchase of stocks in other than short-term high-grade issues, even though he may have to make some sacrifice of yield.

Ordinarily, I like to recommend convertible bonds to my readers; but in view of uncertainties in the stock market it is questionable whether very many purchases in this field should be made now. Again I recommend to individuals—good short-term tax-exempt bonds.

'Canals' Seen On Planet Mars

By The Associated Press
A Japanese astronomer today reported seeing several "canals" in the northern hemisphere of the planet Mars—under close scrutiny by star gazers around the world.

The existence of such canals long has been the subject of great debate among astronomers. They were first reported seen many decades ago, but other observers who have spent a lifetime at telescopes failed to catch a glimpse of them.

The great question concerning the canals, assuming they do exist, is whether they are arteries such as waterways devised by intelligent beings or some kind of natural phenomena.

The latest report came from Dr. Michikazu Onishi of Kobe, Japan, who like many other astronomers in recent weeks has concentrated attention on Mars during its closest approach to the earth since 1924.

The nearest point—35,120,000 miles—was reached at 1 a. m. (EDT) today.

Hurley Cub Meeting Scheduled Monday

The first of three parent-training courses for the purpose of organizing a new Cub Pack in Hurley will be held Monday, Sept. 10, at 7:30 p. m. at the Hurley school.

Dr. and Mrs. Clement Angstrom will direct the course which will be held on consecutive Monday evenings.

All parents who have boys between the ages of 8 and 11 years, who desire to have the boys participate in the cubbing program, are urged to request to attend all three meetings.

Four Navy Men Killed

The dead men, all attached to the Brunswick Naval Air Station, were identified by the navy as follows: William J. Chambers, 18, of 1106 Madison street, Paducah, Ky.; James P. Kershaw, 19, of 2 Westlake avenue, Blackwood, N. J.; Gilbert Morales, 18, of 920 Cardwell avenue, Bronx, N. Y.; and Nathan Washington, 21, whose wife, Joan, is listed as residing at a trailer court at the air station.

"Floral Cafeteria"

On the Greek Island of Rhodes there is a "floral cafeteria." Patrons walk through the gardens, snip off from the growing flowers their own design for a bouquet. They pay according to the number and identification of the blossoms.

End of Malaria Goal of Mexico

Mexico City, Sept. 7 (AP)—The biggest battle ever planned against malaria was launched today throughout Mexico, where 24,000 people die of the disease annually.

The aim of the three-year campaign is to wipe malaria out completely. An army of 10,000 doctors, nurses, technicians, sanitary officers, sprayers, drivers and control groups including army officers went into action.

The medical teams will seek out those who have malaria and cure them. The others will kill disease-carrying mosquitoes.

The mobile army will travel in thousands of jeeps, trucks, planes, launches—and by muleback. Its weapons include tons of insecticide, thousands of sprayers and field laboratory equipment.

Crew Leaves Vessel

Aberdeen, Wash., Sept. 7 (AP)—Waves bashed at the 4,426-ton freighter Seagate, aground on Sonora Reef and in danger of breaking up, after 26 members of her crew were taken off by the coast guard. Her skipper, Comonís Tanayatis, and the radio operator, elected to stay aboard. Coast guard cutters stood by. The 441-foot freighter went aground yesterday afternoon, about a mile and a half off Point Grenville, 110 miles west-southwest of Seattle. She was far off course on a run from Tokyo to Vancouver, B. C.

Every third person employed in the U. S. today is a woman, reports the National Industrial Conference Board.

The presidents of Japan Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Federation of Economic Organizations, Aichiichi Fujiyama and Taizo Ishizaka, handed leaders of Hatoyama's Liberal-Democratic party a resolution adopted by 70 presidents of leading firms. Stevenson Won't
Talk in Harlem

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—Democratic leaders in Harlem, predominantly Negro area here, reportedly have said that Negro dissatisfaction with the Democratic party's platform on civil rights made it inadvisable that Adlai E. Stevenson speak in Harlem "for the time being."

Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate, and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, his running mate, arrive here tomorrow for a five-day campaign in New York state, New Jersey and Connecticut.

In an airport interview last night in Chicago, Stevenson—just returned from speechmaking in San Francisco—said he was familiar with his immediate campaign plans and that they did not include speaking in Harlem "at this time."

"I suppose I will unquestionably address Negro groups at some times," Stevenson said. "I have no objection to meeting with Negro leaders."

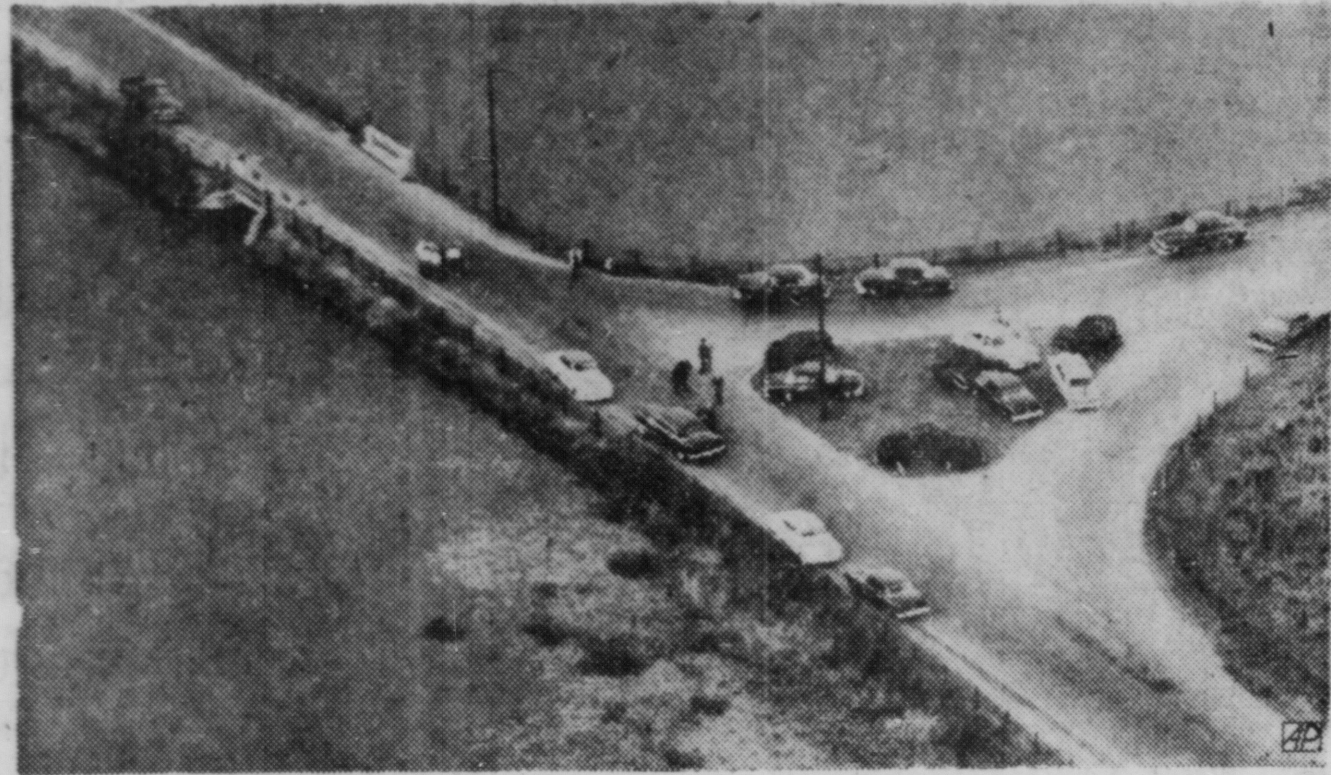

According to newspaper reports, the "warning" to keep Stevenson out of Harlem in the immediate future was voiced at a closed luncheon meeting yesterday attended by Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Carmine G. DeSapio, New York secretary of state.

Mayor Proclaims
September 9-15
For Civil Defense

Mayor Frederick H. Stang issued a proclamation in behalf of observance of Civil Defense Week from Sept. 9 through 15. "The maintenance, of peace, and, as an alternative, personal and national survival in the event of enemy attack," he said, "are of paramount interest to the citizens of Kingston."

"The existence of a strong and efficient civil defense is recognized as a means of attaining these goals, and the strength of the nation's civil defense depends upon the state of the individual and community disaster preparedness throughout the nation."

The mayor noted that President Eisenhower has called upon the nation to observe the week "as a means of developing an awareness of the need for general participation in civil defense," and he urged residents of the city to participate in observance of the week.

Democrats Laud
Dulles' Handling
Of Suez Problem

Washington, Sept. 7 (AP)—Two Senate Democrats praised Secretary of State Dulles today for his handling of the tense Suez Canal situation.

The favorable comment came from Sens. Mansfield (D-Mont.) and Humphrey (D-Minn.), both members of the foreign relations committee.

"I think the secretary is doing a good job in calming people down," Mansfield said. "His efforts aim at settling this by reason rather than emotion."

"His efforts have been constructive and helpful so far," Humphrey agreed in a separate interview. "I told him that yesterday and also said I would not hesitate to be critical when he was in error."

The senators were among the five members of Congress who got a secret briefing on developments in the Suez controversy yesterday from Dulles at the State Department.

They agreed that Dulles had told them things they could not repeat publicly, and none of the Congress members would elaborate.

MacArthur for Senate
Drive Is Gaining

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—The committee to draft Gen. Douglas MacArthur as a candidate for the U. S. Senate says it has obtained 50,000 signatures urging the Republican party to nominate him.

The organization said yesterday it hoped to have 100,000 signatures by Monday, when the GOP State Committee meets in Albany to name its senatorial candidate.

MacArthur has never publicly supported any move for his candidacy.

The Senate seat will be vacated by Democratic Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, who is retiring.

Children Warned
About Playing in Streets of City

Police Chief Raymond Van Buren today issued a reminder that local children are not permitted to play in the city's streets.

The chief said he has received many complaints from residents of various sections of the city that children are playing ball and other games in the streets to the extent that they are hampering traffic, endangering their lives and safety, and becoming general nuisances.

Those who do not heed the warning, he said, are subject to police action.

New Indictment
Is for Burying
Without Permit

Delhi, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)—A new indictment has been returned against Alex Hannus, 70, in the "lonely hearts" death of a 60-year-old widow.

Dist. Atty. Gleason B. Speenburgh of Delaware county said Hannus would probably be arraigned within a week on the new charge, which a grand jury returned sealed yesterday.

Speenburgh said the crime for which Hannus had been indicted was not punishable by death.

Hannus, a retired sea captain, was originally charged with first degree murder in the death of Mrs. Anna Duhamel at her farm home at Handsome Hollow. But the grand jury later indicted him only for burying her body without a permit, a health law violation for which the maximum penalty is a $50 fine.

He has been in jail awaiting trial on that charge.

Police have quoted Hannus as saying Mrs. Duhamel died in a fall after he struck her in self defense. He said she approached him with a butcher knife.

Police have reported that Hannus had started corresponding with Mrs. Duhamel in 1954 and later moved to her farm and worked as a handyman.

Not Same Man

Haverhill, Mass., Sept. 7 (AP)—Haverhill police have been notified that Otto Koehler, arrested in Philadelphia on an automobile charge, is not the same man wanted for a double-slaying in Haverhill last Aug. 5.

When he was arrested yesterday police noted a remarkable physical similarity—even an arm tattoo—to Arthur Koehler, wanted in the slaying of his divorced wife and Charles W. Testa while their car was halted at a traffic light. A more thorough check, however, led the FBI to discover that fingerprints show Otto and Arthur Koehler are not the same man.

Advised to Leave

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 7 (AP)—A white woman and her Negro husband were advised by the district attorney yesterday to leave Texas because their mixed marriage is illegal in this state. Dist. Atty. Hubert Green said he gave Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Brown Jr. this advice after a grand jury declined to take action on charges he presented to it. The former Marry Zitcherman, 22, and Brown, 21, met at Lackland Air Force Base where she was a WAF and he was a porter in the Officer's Club.

Conviction Upheld

Washington, Sept. 7 (AP)—The United States Court of Military Appeals today upheld the army court-martial conviction of Claude J. Batchelor of Kermit, Tex., on charges of helping the Communists while a prisoner of war in Korea. The court, acting unanimously, said "the evidence supporting the findings of guilt" is overwhelming. Batchelor was sentenced to life imprisonment but this later was reduced to 20 years.

Care of Cardiac
Monday Subject
For Nurse Groups

MRS. LYDIA HALL, RN

Mrs. Lydia Hall, RN, instructor at Teachers College and Columbia University, will speak to the registered and practical nurses of Ulster and Greene counties on Monday, Sept. 10, at 8 p. m. The meeting will be held at the nurses' home of Kingston Hospital. Mrs. Hall will discuss "Modern Advances in the Nursing Care of the Cardiac."

Mrs. Hall has her degree in public health nursing and teaching science. Besides being an instructor, she is director of the cardiovascular disease training program at Teachers College and Columbia. She is a research worker and consultant for the New York Heart Association. Mrs. Hall is now finishing her doctor of education degree at Columbia University. She is an author and has written several books on chronic disease and cardiac nursing.

This session is the third in a series of the 1956 Nurses' Institute, which was sponsored in cooperation with the Nurses' Association and the Greene County and Ulster County Heart Chapters of the TB and Health Associations.

Over 200 nurses attended the first two sessions when Dr. Robert Glover of Philadelphia, nationally known heart surgeon, and Dr. Raymond Harris, cardiologist at Albany Medical Center, discussed "Advances in the Treatment and Care of the Cardiac Patient."

The lectures are free. All costs of the Institute are financed by the Heart Fund of the Greene county and Ulster county heart chapters.

Many Taxpayers
Take Advantage
Of 2 Installments

Many local taxpayers took advantage of the new privilege of paying school taxes in two installments, City Treasurer Oscar A. Goodsell said today.

Payments were not at a faster rate since the new regulation, he said, but more than half full payments were made.

First installment payments became due on or before Aug. 31, and second payments are due on or before Oct. 31. Two-installment payments of the general tax has been in effect for some time. The Board of Education voted early in July to authorize the two-installment plan for school tax payments.

SENDING HER HOME ALONE

"My daughter has been going out with a young man who lives at the opposite end of town. Several times when they have been out on a date, he has put her in a taxi and sent her home alone. I object to this very much and do not think much of a young man who will let a girl go home alone late at night. When I confronted my daughter about this she said there was absolutely nothing wrong in it and that it would be foolish to have the young man come all the way out here and then go all the way back again. I would very much like to know what you think about this."

It never has been and never will be proper for a young man to let a girl go home after they have been out together.

General Thanks
Dear Mrs. Post: Recently we celebrated our fiftieth wedding anniversary. My husband has been a minister in this town for many years, and instead of gifts we asked our friends to donate toward the new church we are building. The response was most gratifying. Now we are wondering whether a personal note of thanks is necessary to each one who contributed, or since the church is not for us personally but for everyone, would it be proper for my husband to thank everyone from the pulpit and let it go at that?

Answer: Your husband's general thanks from the pulpit will be sufficient.

Miss Hawaii Takes Lead in Swimsuit Division of 'Miss America' Contest

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 7 (AP)—Three blondes and a brunette are the frontrunners going into the third round of preliminary judging tonight in the annual Miss America Pageant.

The brunette is Miss Hawaii, 20-year-old Jere Wright of Honolulu who topped honors in the swimsuit division last night. She was the favorite of judges and audience alike as she paraded down the long runway in Convention Hall.

Miss Wright measures 35-24-35. She stands 5-feet-7, weighs 120 and has blue eyes.

She shared the night's laurels with Miss Arkansas, 18-year-old Barbara Banks of Conway, who was judged best in the talent competition with her modern ballet number.

Miss Banks went through a difficult routine to the strains of "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue," attired in a coral velvet leotard with a filmy net skirt. Her interpretation ranged from the classical style to modern blues.

A graceful blonde, the Arkansas girl was the only contestant to dance during the talent judging. Most sang or gave dramatic readings and four played musical instruments. Miss Chicago, Sandra Stuart, showed a film of herself in a water ballet.

Two other blondes placed first in their divisions on Wednesday night. They were Miss California, Joan Colleen Becket of Sacramento, in the battle of swimsuits, and Miss Alabama, Ann Stuart Arai of Birmingham, in the talent section.

The girl who wins the title of Miss America 1957 in the finals tomorrow night won't necessarily be one of these four, however.

Contestants have been split into three sections and judged successively for three nights on beauty in swimsuits, poise in evening gowns and on talent. But the results of the evening dress competition are kept secret.

Also, the girls pick up extra points for personality at breakfast sessions with the 11 judges. So some "dark horse" may be named the winner on a point basis to succeed the reigning Miss America, Sharon Kay Ritchie of Denver, Colo.

Rose Marie Hommel Is Wed Before Nuptial Mass at St. Joseph's Church in Glasco

Before a nuptial Mass held in St. Joseph's Church, Glasco, Saturday, Sept. 1, at 10 a. m., Miss Rose Marie Hommel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hommel of Saugerties, exchanged vows with Robert J. Griner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Griner of Albany. It was a double ring ceremony and the Rev. Archibald Damm officiated.

Patrick Buonfiglio was at the organ and Miss Theresa Sasso sang several traditional selections.

White gladioli decorated the church and white satin bows marked the pews. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white lace gown styled with a scoop neckline trimmed with tiny seed pearls, tight bodice and long sleeves. Her bouffant skirt of nylon and tulle over taffeta was floor length. A triple fingertip veil of French illusion was gathered to a Queen's crown of Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls and she carried a prayer book with gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Anne Osika of Poughkeepsie was her matron of honor. Mrs. Osika wore a blue crystalline gown fashioned with an empire bodice, cap sleeves and a pin pleated yoke. The very full flared skirt was ankle length. Her headpiece of velvet leaves matched her gown and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of yellow flowers.

Bridesmaids included Claire Freer and Patricia Hurley. Their gowns were identical in styling to that of the honor attendant but they carried bouquets of pink flowers.

Best man was William Osika of Poughkeepsie and ushers were Leo Charbonneau Jr. and Robert Houghtaling.

A reception was held at Schoenta's following the church ceremony for approximately 75 guests.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Business Association Reports Active Summer

Woodstock, Sept. 7 — The Woodstock Business Association announces that it has completed the most active summer since its inception.

The information center maintained by the association at the entrance to the township has been of material assistance to visitors who stopped there for information concerning "where to find rooms," "where to eat," "what to do," and other questions. An average of about 35 persons a day were served during the week with anywhere from 75 to 100 per day on weekends.

Members and non-members alike were recommended, since the association has as its basic reason for existence, the assistance it can give to the town and visitors.

The information center was managed by two receptionists, Mrs. Gertrude Owen and Mrs. Ethel Adams who met visitors with dignity and were most helpful to many.

The association will hold a meeting of its members in good standing Thursday, Sept. 13, at the Huttly building opposite the Playhouse. It is reported, this meeting will be the most important it has ever held. Plans for the future will be formulated in order that it can publicize Woodstock to greater advantage.

Edgar Bauman, secretary, said that this was his busiest summer since he became secretary, sending out the association's brochures, "Invitation to Woodstock." They were sent to almost every state in the U. S. and many to Canada. One of the plans to be discussed at the meeting will be the preparation of the new brochure which would be used from year to year with a list being inserted every six months listing the members who supported the association.

The Syracuse Nationals and the Rochester Royals of the National Basketball Association will play an exhibition game in Kingston, Oct. 17. Andrew Murphy III, superintendent of recreation, made the announcement today.

The Kingston Post, American Legion will sponsor the attraction in lieu of their annual ball. Tentative plans call for the encounter to take place at Kate Walton Field House. If the field house is not made available, the contest will be played at the municipal auditorium.

Two seasons ago the Nats captured the world professional championship. Last season they forced the champion Philadelphia Warriors into five games before bowing in the Eastern Division finals. The Warriors then went on to trip Ft. Wayne for the world crown.

The Nats are one of the most colorful teams in the NBA and are spearheaded by Dolph Schayes, former great at New York University. An all-star forward several times over, Schayes ranks as one of the all-time scorers and rebounders in the NBA.

PLAYMATES OF SCHAYES will be Ed Conlin of Fordham fame 6'9" center Johnny Kerr, veteran forwards Red Roche and Earl Lloyd and back court wizards George King, Paul Seymour and Bill Kenville. Also Dick Farley and Jim Tucker.

Popular Al Cervi, of course, will coach the team. A farmer great himself, "Digger" is one of the cleverest tutors in the history of the NBA.

Rochester boasts one of the youngest teams in the NBA. Last season they were in the process of re-building and finished last in the Western Division under first-year coach Bobby Wanzer, ex-Seton Hall All-American.

This season Wanzer expects bigger things from his sophomore-stubbed squad which is being hailed as the team to beat in the future.

MAURICE STOKES of St. Francis College of Loretto, Pa., is one of the main reasons why Wanzer is optimistic. Stokes last season was the prize rookie of the NBA and the only one ever to make the all-star team. He finished among the top scorers and rebounders and was voted "Rookie of the Year."

Other freshmen sensations who will be seen here are Dick Ricketts of Dequesne, Jack Twyman of Cincinnati, Richie Regan of Seton Hall and Ed Fleming of Niagara. Wanzer, who doubles as player-coach, will also be seen in action.

Arrangements for the contest are now in full swing. Details on tickets and starting time will be forthcoming.

Big Red on Upswing

James Optimistic Over Cornell's Grid Chances

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)—If Coach Lefty James' unusual optimism is any measuring stick football is on the upswing at Cornell University this fall.

James reports a speedy backfield, good overall depth in all positions and a new emphasis on defense.

AND THE USUALLY somber mentor is singing the praises of the Big Red's chances in the Ivy League race.

He names Yale as the "team to beat" and labels the Eli as the top club in the East, which covers a lot of ground. But James' 10 years at Cornell should make him somewhat of an expert on the subject.

The Red will operate from a T-formation this season, utilizing three quick-moving backs and a capable ball handler in Tiny (152 pounds) Artie Boland of Lynn, Mass.

"If Boland holds up physically, our attack should go all right," James predicts. "He's a wonderful athlete... a fine passer and he should be a good field general."

BO ROBERSON and Bob McAniff are currently running from the halfback posts, proving James' speed claims.

Roberson, from Philadelphia, was the team's leading ground gainer last fall with a net of 503 yards and an average of 6.1 yards per try. His sprint work with the Big Red track squad last spring will probably help him needed get-away action from the T-lineup.

McAniff, who operated at fullback last season, will be "more at home in the halfback position," James feels. The Salisbury, Mass., ball carrier is rated a fine broken field runner.

Another seeking a backfield spot is sophomore Bobby Hazard of Yonkers, who James hopes will be just that to opponents.

Steve Miles of Winthrop, Mass., was sidelined last season because of weak books, but has returned to brighten the fullback picture. A star center on the 1954 team, Miles will play fullback on offense and back up the line on defense.

Another likely quarterback prospect is sophomore Tom Skypack from Chicopee, Mass.

UP FRONT THE following veterans will probably play leading roles in the opener against Colgate, Sept. 29 at Hamilton: Ends, Gerry Knapp, Chuck Night and Bob Blake, tackle Roger Garrett; guards, Al Suter, Paul Boguski and Chris Hatton, and centers, Tom Akins and Tom Itin.

On the subject of defense, James says: "The toughest job today is trying to get the ball away from the other guy. Power and control of the ball are sweeping the gridiron now. It's an offensive defense today, not a waiting game."

AFTER THE OPENER with Colgate, the Big Red will take on Navy, who some experts rate among the East's best. Then they concentrate strictly on the Ivy League.

Cornell's schedule: Sept. 29 at Colgate; Oct. 6 Navy; Oct. 13 Harvard; Oct. 20 at Yale; Oct. 27 Princeton; Nov. 3 at Columbia; Nov. 10 at Brown; Nov. 17 Dartmouth; Nov. 22, Penn'at Philadelphia.

Palmer 1st At Akron

Akron, Ohio, Sept. 7 (AP)—The sixth annual Rubber City Open golf tournament went into its second round today with Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., and Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., leading the field by one stroke with five-under-par 67s for yesterday's 18 holes.

Bunched behind them with 68s for the opening round of the 72-hole medal competition were Jimmy Demaret, three-time Masters' champion from Klamath Lake, N. Y.; Bob Lichardus of Hillsdale, N. J.; and Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill.

A field of some 150 are competing in the $19,000 meeting over the par-72, 6,620-yard Firestone country club course.

Palmer, former Cleveland amateur star who has won four titles since turning professional, birdied the second and sixth holes of the first nine yesterday for 34 and birdied 10, 14 and 15 on the back nine for 33.

Hawkins, whose last major Professional Golfers Assn. victory was in 1950, hit the high point of his tour yesterday when he got an eagle three on the sixth hole. A six-foot putt put him two under par on the par-five, 460-yard hole. He missed an opportunity to take the lead on the 18th hole when he rimmed a six-foot putt.

Wrestling Show Monday

Sky Low Low Listed In Main Event Match

One of the most interesting characters in sports is the mid-gut wrestler, Sky Low Low, who will appear in the main tag team event on Monday night's (Sept. 10) card at the municipal auditorium.

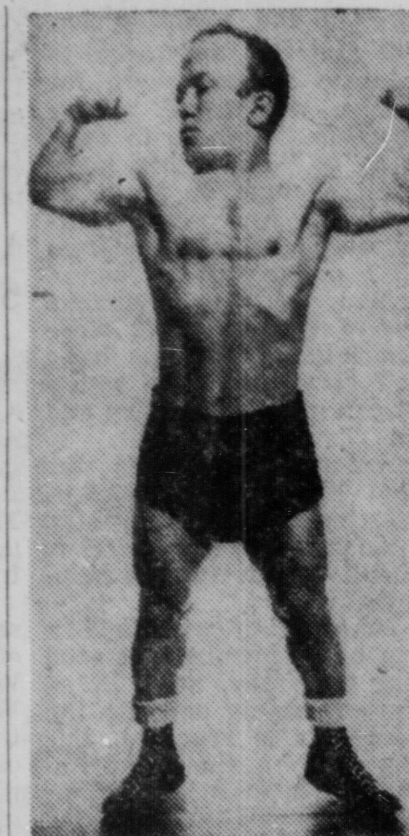

This little bundle of dynamite, who weighs only 86 pounds, is one of the fastest and trickiest mid-gut grapplers in the ring today.

Built with extraordinary muscles, his body is capable of great strength and agility. He is also one of the best drop kickers in the wrestling game.

In a tournament held in Paris where some 30 mid-guts participated, the little Canadian wildcat easily won, and was claimed world champion of his class. He is 22 years old and single. His favorite sports are horseback riding, fishing and golf at which he shoots in the low 90s.

Sky Low will appear with Chief Little Beaver, Brown Panther and Fuzzy Cupid in the main event.

Two other bouts are scheduled.

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)—The biggest tennis mystery in years—the comeback story of Dick Savitt—has its unfolding today at the West Side Tennis Club.

Can Dick Savitt, out of top-flight competitive action for four years and not match-hardened, beat Australia's Ken Rosewall in the quarter-finals of the National tennis championships?

THE ODDS SAY "No," but tennis oldtimers have other sentiments on what shapes up as the key match of the season. "I think Savitt will win," said Don Budge, the only man ever to win the Australian, French, Wimbledon and U. S. championships in a single year. "I have been practicing with Dick. He has adjusted himself marvelously to grass. He has the big game to take Rosewall. I still think Lew Hoard will win the tournament, but I like Savitt over Rosewall."

Besides Savitt, America's hopes of keeping the men's title at home rest with Vic Seixas, who meets 19-year-old Ashley Cooper of Australia in the opening match and Hamilton Richardson of Westfield, N. J., who plays Australia's Neale Fraser.

HOARD, WHO IS favored to duplicate Budge's "grand slam" of 1938, meets a fellow Australian, young Roy Emerson, in the other quarter-final contest.

In the women's quarter-finals, Althea Gibson of New York plays young Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., while Mrs. Dorothy Knodel of Forest Hills, N. Y., takes on Betty Pratt of Jamaica.

A major upset marked yesterday's women's play which saw Shirley Bloomer, a 22-year-old British girl, turn back the veteran Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., 6-3, 6-3. Miss Bloomer's semi-final foe is Shirley Fry, the top-seeded Wimbledon champion from St. Petersburg, Fla., who ousted Mrs. Margaret Dupont, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2.

Carter 8-5 Pick Over Summerlin

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—Harold Carter and Johnny Summerlin, two of the better young heavyweights of a drab collection of contenders, clash in a return bout at Madison Square Garden tonight with Carter an 8-5 favorite to reverse his defeat.

The 10-rounder will be broadcast and telecast (NBC, 9 p. m., EST), coast to coast.

In their first fight in Detroit, May 23, Carter, subbing on five days' notice for injured Bob Satterfield, dropped a unanimous 10-round decision to Summerlin, a 24-year-old ex-soldier from Detroit.

Satterfield was the next opponent for each. The hard-hitting brittle chinned Chicagoan outpointed Summerlin on June 20, snapping Johnny's 12-fight win streak. But Carter, a 22-year-old from Linden, N. J., found the button on Satterfield's jaw and stopped him in the fifth round on Aug. 1.

This may be the screwiest National League pennant race yet. With four weeks to go, it's a three-way scrap among Milwaukee, Cincinnati and Brooklyn—but the teams to beat are St. Louis, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

The gimmick lies in what's left of the schedule—plus an odd similarity of records to date and the weather in Philadelphia and Milwaukee.

	W	L	Pct.	GB	TP
Milwaukee	81	52	.609	...	21
Cincinnati	80	54	.597	1 1/2	20
Brooklyn	79	54	.594	2	21

Milwaukee and Cincinnati each have two games left with Brooklyn, all four at Ebbets Field, while meeting each other once. That more or less leaves the winning of the pennant up to the games with the rest of the league—and here's how the many-sided gimmick works:

The first place Braves have two series and seven games left with last-place Chicago. The second-place Redlegs, meanwhile, play seven games in two series with fourth-place St. Louis. And the third place Dodgers play seven against sixth place Pittsburgh in two series.

Because of an earlier rainout, the Braves have a four-game series remaining in Philadelphia against the Phillies—only club in the league with an edge (10-8) over Milwaukee. Rain in Philly also leaves the Redlegs with a four-game set there.

NEXT THURSDAY, the Braves play an "extra" game at Pittsburgh—starting from scratch on the 1-1 tie caused by rain in Milwaukee last week.

The Braves, who play all but three of their remaining games away from home, open a 14-game trip and four-game series at Chicago today with Brooklyn the next stop. Cincy, after taking three of four in Milwaukee, starts on the last 13 games of a road trip with the opener of a three-game series at St. Louis tonight. The Redlegs play 15 of their remaining games on the road.

And the Dodgers, who were 3-2 in a five-game, three-day series against New York at the Polo Grounds last weekend, try again to open a four-game set with the Giants tonight. This time, following the rainout, it's a two-night doubleheader—the only twinbill on schedule at the moment for the Brooks, who play 17 of their remaining games at home.

THE AMERICAN LEAGUE: Well, New York's magic number is 13 (any combination of Yankee victories and Cleveland losses totaling 13 clinches the flag), and Mickey Mantle, with 47 home runs, is two behind Babe Ruth's record-60 pace of 1927 as the Yankees open at home against Washington tonight.

Chicago's at Cleveland tonight, Boston is at Baltimore for a twinbill and Detroit's at Kansas City.

Only two games were scheduled yesterday. Washington, scoring six in the fifth with Jose Valdivielso hitting a three-run homer, defeated Baltimore 7-5. And the Detroit Tigers defeated the Kansas City Athletics 6-0 in a night game with Frank Lary spinning a 4-hitter and Ray Boone, Red Wilson, Wayne Belardi and Charlie Maxwell hitting home runs.

Nielsen, Vincent In Tennis Semis

Cava Dei Tirreni, Italy, Sept. 6 (AP)—Two-time Wimbledon finalist Kurt Nielsen, of Denmark, and Tony Vincent, of Miami, Fla., fought their way into the semi-finals of an international tennis tournament today.

Nielsen defeated Mario Berardinelli, of Italy, 6-4, 6-4, and Vincent trimmed Sergio Jacobini, of Italy, 6-1, 1-6, 7-7. In the last match Jacobini defaulted complaining of a stomach ache.

In the quarter-finals of the women's singles, Daphne Sweeney, of Australia, defeated Maria Samtini, of Italy, 6-0, 6-1, and Michele Bourbonnais, of France, beat Lucia Bassi, of Italy, 6-3, 6-4.

Blue Jays Have Break in Slate

(By The Associated Press)
All three Eastern League games were washed out last night, giving the Schenectady Blue Jays an overnight rest in first place before heading into the final weekend of the tight pennant race.
The Jays, in pursuit of their first league pennant, hold a 1½ game lead over second-place Binghamton and a 3½ game lead over Reading.
The schedule favors the front-runners from here to the wire. The Jays have five games left, all at home. The Trips also have all of their remaining five games at home but their situation is desperate.

Pair Deadlocked For Sailing Lead

Port Abino, Ont., Sept. 7 (AP)—The 16th international Lightning Class championship sailing races entered their second day today with a two-man tie for first place.
Bill Cox of Darien, Conn., and Gene Walet III of New Orleans, La., completed yesterday's two races with 86 points each.
Pete Grainge of the host Buffalo Canoe Club was third with 83 points.
The defending champion, Tom Allen III of the host club, finished the day in sixth place with 78 points.
Forty-five entrants raced over the Buffalo club's triangular course on Lake Erie.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

PITCHING

Frank Lary, Detroit—shut out the Athletics on four hits for 16th victory as Tigers won 6-0.

HITTING

Jose Valdivielso, Washington—his three-run homer was the big blow in Senators' 7-5 victory over Baltimore.

Cycle Mark Set

Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, Sept. 6 (AP)—A Texan rode his streamlined motorcycle to a world's speed record of 214.40 miles an hour on western Utah's salt flats today. Johnny Allen, 26, of Ft. Worth, erased the old mark of 211 m.p.h. set earlier this summer by Wilhelm Herz, of Neckersulm, Germany, on the same course.

RING-AROUND-A-ROSY

Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By JIMMY BRESLIN (NEA Staff Correspondent)

Syracuse, N. Y. — (NEA) — Once the bell rings here Sept. 12, Carmen Basilio's attempt to regain the welterweight title from Johnny Saxton will come down to a simple affair. Carmen, the craggy-faced hometown hero, will have to press Saxton, get inside and then go to work with his left hand. If he doesn't, the results won't be good.

At Chicago last March, Saxton won a unanimous decision by constantly moving away behind a left jab which speared Basilio almost without a miss. Only in one round, the second, did Basilio get close enough to shake Saxton. There seems no reason why Saxton won't use the same strategy this time.

But this is reserved for fight time at what should be a sold out War Memorial Auditorium—and a good-sized viewing audience at TV sets around the nation.

The complicated part of the situation, the angles and counter angles, all come before this. And, in spots, they seem to be as interesting as the bout itself.

The mere fact that Saxton is fighting in a New York ring, for example, Johnny is managed by Frank (Blinky) Palermo of Philadelphia, who was, from the outset, one of the major stepping stones New York Commissioner Julius Helfand used en route to a national name.

Palermo, Helfand informed everybody, would never be allowed to participate in a New York fight. Nor would a Palermo boxer sign his own contract.

So, as is the way with Crusading Commissioners Saxton was allowed to sign for this one himself. And Palermo, his manager, bluntly tells you, "I'm taking my cut out of his check. Of course I am. I'm the manager. And I also handled all the arrangements for this fight."

Meanwhile, you have Basilio's confidence that he won't get the worst of any decision in his home diggings. Out in Chicago, Carmen roared over the decision. Since then, one of the judges, Ed Hintz, had been found guilty of using state funds for his pet projects, starting with himself. Basilio feels the state of Illinois could have included the Saxton decision in the Hintz indictment.

Because of this, Saxton and Palermo at first were all for holding this fight anywhere but in New York. Basilio refused to even think of Chicago. How Palermo was brought to agree on Syracuse is anybody's guess.

The fight itself should draw about 12,000 paying $130,000. It should be a good one. Basilio can be counted on to throw more punches and use his natural strength and stamina to set as killing a pace as possible.

There are those who feel Saxton has confidence with the title and will do a better fencing job than usual. But the last time Saxton was a champion, Tony DeMarco put him on his head in 14 rounds at Boston.

The odds figure to settle down to a 6-5, pick 'em situation on fight night.

Basilio, training at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., feels anything but Saxton a 5-1 underdog would be out of line. "He won the title from me by running away," Carmen says. "I didn't think that was possible, except in Chicago. I won't give him a chance to run this time. I'll stick right with him."

Saxton, in harness at Ehsan's, Summit, N. J., thinks differently, of course. "I got the feel of him last time... beat the boy good. This time I know all about it. I'll do it nice."

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By WARREN PAGE
Shooting Editor

The commercial pheasant preserve operation is solidly established at this point, with pay-as-you shoot farms available within easy drive of any city north of the Mason-Dixon line, and a growing number of such gunning areas setting up shop in what was once purely quail country.

Rearing pheasants behind wire then turning them into cash by turning them out for gunners to hunt, has become a worthwhile business in these days of incredible hunting pressure.

SUCH NATURAL shooting the commercial farms had to learn to deliver—or else go out of business—and the better layouts are doing well. So long as a man is willing to spend about five bucks a bird—which is anywhere from one half to one 50th of what the average city or town dweller would pay for his shooting if he traveled far for it—this kind of semi-wild gunning will grow. For the problem of bird-shooting space open to the city gunner, it forms one practical answer.

To date, deer hunters have been in a privileged category in the hunting pressure situation. Farmers don't post so actively against deer hunters; most whitetail states still have huge acreages of open land, largely wilderness, where would-be Natty Bumpuses can operate. Mule deer hunters have as yet no problem in the Rocky Mountain states. But the day of a major problem is coming in the densely populated areas.

One ray of hope as far as the pressed business man who simply can't afford travel time is concerned is a stunt being experimented with just outside New York city. Near the metropolis there are a surprising number of privately owned deer parks, their very large acreage under buck-proof fence where venison is raised for the market.

AT LEAST one of these, the Allamuchy Game Preserve near Hackettstown, N. J., offers beyond its regular pheasant gunning the chance to try hunting a buck. Any deer killed is to be paid for at the going market rate per pound, from six bits to a dollar.

Commercial? Yes. Costly? No, not when you consider the tab for a trip to Maine or wherever to take the same brand of deer. And sporting?

Halfback Jim Ridlon is Syracuse University's best defensive back, according to Orange coach Ben Schwartzwalder. Ridlon is a senior from South Nyack, N. Y.

St. Louis New Orleans Legion Finalists

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 7 (AP)—Undeclared St. Louis takes on New Orleans tonight for the title in the National American Legion junior baseball tournament.

New Orleans ousted Roseburg, Ore. from the double elimination event last Thursday night, 15-2, after having itself suffered a 7-3 loss to St. Louis Wednesday night.

Jim Harwell, lanky New Orleans right-hander tamed the Oregonians on 11 strikeouts, 2 walks and 4 hits before he was relieved in the ninth inning. Harwell also tossed the one-hitter that eliminated Yonkers, N. Y., 2-0, Monday.

New Orleans amassed 14 hits off a trio of west coast mound men with Dick Smith charged with the defeat before he went out in the third frame.

St. Louis takes the title with a victory tonight, otherwise a second game will be played Saturday.

Bowling Meeting

The BYA bowling league will hold a meeting Monday, Sept. 10 at Ferraro's Bowldrome at 1 p. m. Women bowlers who are interested in joining the afternoon circuit are invited to attend. The loop is open to both beginners and intermediate bowlers.

Ft. Worth Crew Cops Sailing Title

Cohasset, Mass., Sept. 7 (AP)—A quartet of Texans today hold the Mrs. Charles Francis Adams Cup symbolic of the North American Women's Yacht racing championship after an unprecedented victory.

Mrs. Glenn Lattimore, captained the Fort Worth Yacht Club crew to a victory in the sixth and a second in the seventh and final race yesterday at the conclusion of the three-day competition on Massachusetts Bay off the Cohasset Yacht Club.

The triumph marked the first time a crew representing an area outside the immediate Atlantic Coast area ever won the championship.

Mrs. Lattimore, a beetle catboat sailor from Eagle Mountain Lake, was assisted by crew members Mrs. Rose Rector, Diane McFarland and Jane Mooney.

Rain Spoils Opening

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 7 — Rain last night held the crowd to 2,351 persons at the opening night of Saratoga Raceway's 13th fall meeting. Showers an hour and a half before the program made the track muddy and the fastest mile of the night was 2:09 4/5. That was turned in by Rummymede Sheila as she won the $1,800 Greenfield Center Pace. Al Retzlaff was the driver and the pay-off was $17.70, $8.10 and $5.

Pessimism Surrounds Suez Talks

Cairo, Egypt, Sept. 7 (AP)—The Menzies mission conferred privately for nearly three hours today and adjourned without announcing whether it would meet again with President Nasser on the Suez Canal situation.

A spokesman refused to comment on reports the mission had failed to get Nasser to agree to international control of the canal and that the next moves are up to Washington and London.

He said the mission did not come to Cairo to find a solution to the Suez crisis, but to find a starting point for negotiations.

Nasser Leaves Cairo

Nasser left Cairo for Alexandria, the Mediterranean summer resort and Egypt's main port. Nasser's family has been vacationing there this summer, and he usually goes there on the weekend to visit them.

Pessimism pervaded in both the Egyptian and the foreign quarters of Cairo following the reports the Menzies mission had failed. It was generally agreed the mission was awaiting word from London and Washington before making its next move—even to setting a time for the next meeting with Nasser.

It appeared little progress had been made toward finding a starting point for negotiations in sessions of the mission with Nasser from Monday through Wednesday.

Haver Heads

be available when the other divisions hold their kick-off on Sept. 24. Names of members of the Advance Gift committee are expected to be announced next week.

The Community Chest also reported today that response to the Business Sponsor Program has been "particularly gratifying." Harold E. Keator, Jr., business sponsor chairman, estimated "better than 90 per cent" attendance at business firms contacted, based on returns made to date.

Volunteers from the eight member agencies of the Chest participated in the program, a pre-campaign activity designed to give the operators of area firms the opportunity to express their support of the Community Chest idea and to ask any questions they might have about the Chest and its agencies.

Plans for contacting professional people of the city were outlined by Mr. Steinkuller at the monthly meeting of the Ulster County Medical Society held Tuesday night at the Wiltwyck Country Club.

This was the first in a series of brief presentations planned by the Community Chest for the various professional societies in order to acquaint members with the purposes of the Chest without interfering with their office calls. Dr. John A. Olivet, president, presided at the medical society meeting.

Mrs. T. P. Fitzgerald is chairman of the Professional Division of the Community Chest campaign.

Notch Road Work

effort to speed state activity and get the road advertised for bid.

Delays Encountered

Further delay was encountered when bids were finally sought in April and none were received. The contract was readvertised and early in June the Rock Construction Company submitted a low bid of $757,886.60. The road is designated as Route 214 and the contract is for 3.98 miles.

The existing 16-foot roadway will be straightened and widened to 20 feet and surfaced with a new bituminous macadam top. Alignment will be improved and grades reduced.

Traffic will be maintained during construction.

Virginia Man Is New Legion Head

Los Angeles, Sept. 7 (AP)—The American Legion set out today on a new crusade against communism after hearing a warning by Vice President Richard M. Nixon of communism's "serious threat to freedom" and a pledge by newly elected National Commander Wilbur C. Daniel to fight its "despotic evils."

The Legion wound up its National Convention last night by electing Daniel, a 42-year-old navy veteran, to the highest office of the 2,800,000-member organization.

Daniel is from Danville, Va. Earlier, the convention heard Nixon call "the struggle against world communism the greatest challenge that free men ever faced."

Daniel told the convention in his acceptance speech: "New and strange doctrines are current. A new philosophy is finding its place in the thinking of man: a philosophy conceived in the womb of socialism, born in an era of social and economic conflict, and nursed in the lap of communism."

"This crimson philosophy is gnawing at the vitals of our society and threatening the destruction of our nation."

Kentucky May Use Martial Law

Sturgis, Ky., Sept. 7 (AP)—Nine Negro students stayed home today as state officials stood ready to declare martial law if necessary to control angry mobs threatening the Negro students who enrolled in previously all-white Sturgis High School.

National Guard and state police officials said they already had the papers necessary for declaring martial law but at the moment thought it was not needed.

Putnam Hearing Monday

The hearing on the grand larceny charge against Donald Putnam, scheduled to be heard today before Justice Harold E. Macholdt, was adjourned until Monday District Attorney Howard C. St. John reported. Additional informations have been filed. Putnam is charged with having issued fraudulent checks. A charge of sale of trailers which he reportedly did not own, was dismissed last Friday by Justice Macholdt after a four-hour hearing, on application of Sherwood Davis, counsel for Putnam. The second degree grand larceny charge to come before the court next Monday is reportedly totaling between $12,000 and $15,000.
